

ZOOMOBILE PROGRAMS

Thanks so much for your interest in our integrative education programs! All Zoomobile programs are aligned to College and Career Readiness Standards, making them the perfect addition to your school year. The information below will help in selecting the right Zoomobile for your group.

- Duration: 45 minutes, multiple sessions available in the same visit.
- Location: Your school, or another public indoor facility.
- Capacity: 99 person max, including students and teachers.
- Date: Any day! Please plan at least four weeks in advance.
- Cost: Dependent on distance from the Zoo...
- Jackson and Clay Counties – free visit once per group per school year.
 - 0 – 30 miles – $125 and $50 for each additional same-visit session.
 - 31 – 60 miles – $175 and $50 for each additional same-visit session.
 - 61 – 90 miles – $225 and $50 for each additional same-visit session.

In a Class of Their Own: Zoo Educators and Animal Ambassadors give your students a real-life application of taxonomy and organizing animal groups. Objectives are for each student to be able to...

- Identify at least five major taxonomic groups.
- Describe how scientists organize the animal kingdom.
- Understand the importance of biodiversity.

Journey to Survival: Zoo Educators and Animal Ambassadors help your students discover various reasons for animal endangerment around the world. Objectives are for each student to be able to...

- Define the terms endangered, threatened, and extinct.
- Identify four reasons that lead to endangerment.
- Describe at least two actions they can personally take to assist in the continued survival of the animal species still alive today.